Island Training Updates Slew of Courses to Stay Current with IBM® Rational® Versions

Unveils New Test Drive for IBM Rational Quality Manager

New Curriculum

Courseware is now available to support the 4.0.2 release of Jazz™ CLM (which includes Rational Team Concert™, Rational Requirements Composer, and Rational Quality Manager), Rational ClearCase® 8.0, ClearCase MultiSite® 8.0 and Rational Software Architect 8.5.

"There's a reason we race to keep our curriculum current with the latest versions coming from the Rational development team," said Jim Herron, co-founder and chief technology officer of Island Training Solutions. "Our goal, always, is to support deployments of the most advanced IBM Rational tools and practices."

Key Island Training curriculum updates include, for ClearCase 8.0 users, the integration of ClearTeam Explorer and, for Jazz users, training has been extended for the following interfaces and roles:

- Rational Team Concert Web interface for business analysts, managers, and other contributors
- Rational Team Concert Eclipse™ interface and Visual Studio interface for developers
- Rational Team Concert Shell interface for developers (new to RTC in 4.0)
- Rational Team Concert for System z® Enterprise integrated RDz interface for enterprise developers

New Test Drive

Test drives are now available for Rational Quality Manager, a comprehensive testing tool. Island Training's free test drive is designed to let quality professionals around the globe see for themselves the capabilities of Rational Quality Manager. Participants can connect—from their own desks—to Island Training's virtual classroom for a remote, hands-on experience led by an expert Island instructor. There is no software to download and no license required. Test drives are available at numerous times and dates to accommodate different work schedules around the globe. To register for a free test drive, go to www.islandtraining.com/test-drives.html.

"Our goal, always, is to support deployments of the most advanced IBM Rational tools and practices."
